Khalid Khalid

Web Developer

I am a 22-year-oldjunior web developer, passionate and versatile, with solid practical experience gained from various internships in the healthcare, retail, and services sectors. Proficient in both front-end and back-end technologies (React, Laravel, Spring Boot), I develop comprehensive and high-performance web applications. Conscientious, creative, and solution-oriented, I am actively seeking new challenges to apply my skills to innovative projects.
